

Bloom's Affective Taxonomy

Level	Type	Verbs	Examples
1	Receive: Willing to listen and open to new experiences	Acknowledge, Ask, Be Open To, Discuss, Feel, Focus, Follow, Listen To, Perceive, & Show Tolerance For	SWBAT listen to their partner's suggestions for game strategy.
2	Respond: Actively responding to an activity	Answer, Clarify, Contribute, Follow Along, Help Team, Perform, Question, React, Reply, Seek Clarification, & Write	SWBAT contribute in a group discussion following a team building activity.
3	Value: Attaching value to something and expressing personal opinions	Argue, Attain, Challenge, Confront, Criticize, Debate, Examine, Justify, Participate, Persuade, & Support	SWBAT examine why physical activity is important to them.
4	Organize: To express personal views, beliefs, or opinions	Arrange, Build, Decide, Defend, Develop, Discuss, Identify With, Judge, Relate, Prioritize, Reconcile, & Theorize	SWBAT defend why their favorite physical activity is a good choice for becoming/staying healthy.
5	Internalize: To act consistently according to one's personal beliefs and values.	Act, Avoid, Believe, Carry Out, Continue to, Influence, Manage, Practice, Resist, Resolve, Revise, and Solve	SWBAT carry out their plan for becoming an active role model.